

TIMOTHY ALEXANDER FORBES

15 DEEPPENE AVE, ADELAIDE 5076, (HOME) 08 8336 8209
(MOBILE) +61 449 950 052 timothy.forbes259@gmail.com
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/timothy-forbes-260711b9/>

Career Profile:

Throughout my professional career I have been given many opportunities to utilise and further my current knowledge whilst applying my skills learnt from previous training and constant upskilling I undertake. I pride myself on my adaptability to new and existing environments and the ability to process change with minimal disruption, to ensure maximum productivity. I have proven problem solving skills which I am able to utilise in all facets of my future working career.

Key Skills:

- Proven trustworthiness in highly secured zones(airport airside)
- A committed approach to problem solving
- adaptability
- Adept computational ability
- Self-motivated
- Safety Professional

Employment History

December 2017 to April 2020

Cobham Aviation Services

Role: Ground Operations agent

- Ground operations
- Safety Marshalling
- Aircraft Movement (On time performance compliant)
- Stock control
- VIP Jet arrivals/dispatch

Qualifications:

- Ongoing, Full Stack Web Development Course, Adelaide University
- 2017, Bachelor of Innovation (Honours), UniSA
- 2016, Bachelor of Aviation, UniSA
Transcript available on request
- 2016, YMCA Youth Parliament 2016 (Youth Development Program), YMCA
- 2013, SACE Certificate, Torrens Valley Christian School

Internship/Placements:

June 2017 to November 2017

RAA Future Mobility Services Innovation Challenge

Scope: To design a product or service for 2030 in an evolving mobility services environment

Key Responsibilities:

- Justified service for a 2030 automotive world
- Estimate and justify expected costs for all stages of our product or service
- Achieved desired outcomes within a dynamic team environment, by applying sound time management, negotiation and prioritisation skills to meet competing priorities

March 2017 to May 2017

Accelerated Venture NEXT Program (Deloitte)

Scope: A fast-paced program which provides an understanding of the process of bringing an innovative idea to market.

Key Responsibilities

- high performance teamwork to produce a unique product
- Developing an innovative opportunity out of a persistent problem
- Achieved desired outcomes within a dynamic team environment, by applying sound time management, negotiation and prioritisation skills to meet competing priorities

Volunteering Work:

September 2018 – Current

ALACON Committee

Scope: Organising and planning events for the roleplaying tabletop community in South Australia.

Key Responsibilities:

- Event Management and promotion for assigned events
- Understanding community needs and wants in the South Australian tabletop community
- Discussion, review and development of policy based on volunteer base and market needs

Referees:

Brad Hanna

Ground operations trainer / Shift supervisor

Relationship: Trainer / Supervisor

Ph: 0404 027 008

Matthew Davey

Community relations advisor,
Relationship: Trusted Friend

Ph: 0447 359 267